Women Leading with Expertise Navigating Recovery with Confidence

At the heart of every successful turnaround is a team that combines legal excellence, strategic foresight, and a deep understanding of commercial realities. Our female-led Business Rescue and Insolvency team in Cape Town embodies the power of diverse leadership, delivering tailored solutions to businesses facing financial distress.

We specialise in business rescue, restructuring, and insolvency, guiding companies through complex financial challenges with strategic insight, legal precision, and unwavering commitment. Whether stabilising a distressed business, restructuring debt, or advising on liquidation, we provide commercially sound and legally robust strategies to protect stakeholders and unlock opportunities for recovery.

With a proven track record in high-stakes matters, our team delivers practical, solutions-driven support, covering contingency planning, formal and informal restructures, business rescue proceedings, and insolvencies. Backed by deep industry knowledge and a global alliance with Linklaters, we help clients achieve the best possible outcomes.

We are proud of the strength, expertise, and leadership of our female experts shaping the future of business recovery and restructuring.

Resilient. Strategic. Empowered.

Trust our experienced team to support your business through every stage of financial distress.
